Book synopsis

The first volume of the series Raphael and His Time starts with a study of the Portrait of Baldassare Castiglione in its cultural contexts confronting it with the Portrait of Antonio Tebaldeo. The second contribution focuses on Raphael's Madonna dell'Impannata, of which a new version has recently surfaced, and which is here presented as a workshop replica. Stress is laid on the technical analysis, which allows to identify the picture as a painting coming from the workshop of Raphael.

Contents

Contents: A historical and iconographical paper on the Portrait of Baldassare Castiglione - An analysis on a version of Raphael's Madonna dell'Impannata, here identified a workshop replica.

About the author(s)/editor(s)

Jürg Meyer zur Capellen was born in Göttingen (Germany) in 1941. He taught art history at the universities of Freiburg, Cologne, and Münster. He has written widely on Renaissance painting and is directing the Raffael Projekt for more than 20 years.
Claudio Falcucci was born in Colleferro (Italy) in 1967.
